

WHAT TO BRING TO A HAZARDOUS WASTE COLLECTION

Household products with warnings on the label such as Warning, Danger, Caution, Poison, Caustic, Toxic, Corrosive, Irritant, Flammable, and “Keep out of reach of children.”

A/C refrigerants (Freon)	Flea powders	Paint: oil, marine, lead & hobby
Antifreeze	Fluorescent bulbs-all types	Paint thinners/solvents/strippers
Arts & crafts supplies	Furniture polish	Pesticides/insect sprays/pest-strips
Auto & truck batteries	Gasoline	Photographic supplies
Automotive fluids	Herbicides	Pool chemicals
Button batteries	Insect pump sprays	Rechargeable batteries
Lead acid batteries	Rodent killers	Kerosene
Creosote	Oven Cleaners	Root killers
Chemistry kits	Lead paints	Septic tank cleaners
DDT	Metal polishes	Spot removers/solvents
Disinfectants	Mothballs	Swimming pool chemicals
Drain cleaners	Motor oil (contaminated only)	Thermostats & thermometers
Dry gas	Muriatic acid	Toilet cleaners
Engine degreasers	Nickel-cadmium batteries	Varnishes & sealants
Fertilizers with pesticides	Wood preservatives & stains

Note: Items marked in purple are collected year-round at one of the two City of Northampton Transfer Stations. If you wish to dispose of only item in purple, please call the DPW to see if alternate arrangements can be made.

PLEASE DO NOT BRING

Latex and water-based products such as paints, stains, and driveway sealers (labels will say “latex,” “water-based” or “clean up with soap and water.”)

Aerosol cans that contain anything other than paint, pesticide or disinfectant.

Air fresheners/deodorizers*

Alkaline or carbon-zinc batteries*

Ammunition

Asbestos

Car waxes/polishes/cleaners*

Caulk/spackle/grout*

Cosmetics*

Empty containers from hazardous products*

Explosives & fireworks

Fertilizer without pesticides*

Glass & window cleaners*

Medical/infectious waste

PCB's (transformers)

Propane tanks/cylinders

Smoke detectors

Scouring powders*

*These Items may be safely disposed in your household trash or given away for use.

Free-flowing liquids must be dried out prior to disposal. Call for information.